Story Telling • Christian Helping Others • May Yr. 2

Place the Bible and Jesus doll by the Storyteller

Use the gate from the Gathering, coins, cup to gather coins, mat for man to sit on at the gate for dramatic play.

Our story today is from our Bible (show Bible), our book that tells the stories of God and God's people, of Jesus (show Jesus doll), God's son, and of how much God loves us (place hands over heart).

This story is from the Book of Acts. It is in the New Testament. (show the New Testament) The book of Acts tells about the adventures that the friends of Jesus had as they went around the country sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ. Remember we've had two stories from the Book of Acts about Paul. I am going to tell you a story about two other Christians, Peter and John.

I am going to tell you the story, first, and then we are going to take turns acting it out:

One day, Peter and John, two of Jesus' friends, were going to pray at the temple. The temple was a big, big building and it was very beautiful. The door of the temple was 75 feet high- that's about as tall as a house!- and it was covered with beautiful artwork and silver and gold. It was called the Beautiful Gate. (motion to the Beautiful Gate made in the Gathering)

When Peter and John arrived at the Beautiful Gate, they noticed a man, sitting on a mat, (hold up the mat) near the Gate. The man was covered with an old blanket (hold up the blanket) and he held a small basket of coins. (show basket of coins.)

The man could not walk. His legs were paralyzed. They did not work, and so the man sat, all day, at the Gate asking the people who passed by for money. The money that he collected helped him to buy food.

As Peter and John drew close to the man, he called out to them, asking them for money.

Peter stopped and said to the man, "Look at me."

The man looked and Peter said, "We have no money. But we will give you what we do have: In the name of Jesus, stand up and walk."

And then Peter took him by the hand, and the man stood up. He could stand! And then, the man jumped for joy and thanked God. He joined Peter and John and went to the temple to pray.

Amen.

Now- who would like to help act out this story? We need two people to be Peter and John, and one person to be the man at the Gate, and two others to play people who give the man money as they enter the temple. (Using the props of blanket, mat, basket, coins and Gate, re-enact the story. Begin with the two who give the man money as they pass by, and then have Peter and John arrive, talk to the man and heal him. When the man is lifted up by Peter, he will jump around the room and call out, "Thank You, God!" Then Peter, John and the man exit the scene as they enter the temple together to pray.)

Continue until all who have desired, have a chance to play then explain the activities.
